MANAGER FINCH
RESIGNS HIS JOB

John W. Finch has resigned the position of general manager of the Goldfield Consolidated, to take effect as soon as his successor is appointed. Whether he will remain with the company or not, in some other capacity, is in doubt. The cause for the resignation is held in reserve, as both Mr. Finch and the directors refuse to talk about it. His successor will be John H. MacKenzie, who, at the annual meeting of the board of directors at Evanston, Wyo., last Monday, was chosen as one of the directors of the company. He is now at Ely, but is expected here today.

The new general manager has had a wide experience as a practical mine manager, and knows the business from a nipper boy on a mine to every detail great or small, connected with development, not only knowing how it should be done, but able to do it himself, as he went through all the grades. He has worked in the mines all of his life in different portions of the country, and at one time and another has been superintendent of the Portland and Stratton Independence, at Apple Creek, and later on held the same position in the La Roy mine, in British Columbia. He has also been in the Klondike country, working for others, as well as for himself. When the Ely excitement broke out he went to that camp, a representative of the Guggenheim interests, and it is said that he cleaned up a big fortune in the sale of properties. He is an aggressive character, and at the same time liberal minded, and has the habit of getting on well with the men working under him. The work under his direction will be pushed with vigor.—Goldfield Tribune.

AN OBSTINATE WIDOW.

Lucy Burris Went to Jail Rather Than Pay One Cent Damages.

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Wabash, Indiana, says:

Mrs. Lucy Burris, owner of two farms and much city property, who was fined by a Wabash circuit court jury one cent for assault and battery on her farm tenant, Tom Sivets, yesterday, was taken to jail because she refused to pay the fine. The jury gave her the least possible fine, Mrs. Burris, although wealthy, stubbornly asserted she would never pay a cent. She is a widow and manages her own affairs.

SALT LAKERS
BOND PROPERTY

NEVERSWET MINE AT BELLEHELEN IS UNDER OPTION.

H. M. Eakin, who has been in from Bellehelen for the last two or three days will leave for there this morning. He has bonded the Neverwet property for Salt Lake parties, and is working it for them and himself.

"We have now a tunnel in," said he, "with which we expect to tap the main ledge. It is in now 175 feet, and we will have to go about sixty feet more before we make connections with the shaft which we sunk in the fall. We have taken some pretty good assays, although the most of them run $3 and $4 a ton. In the shaft where we will catch the vein, we got returns of forty ounces in silver and as high as $2000 in gold. We have stopped sinking, confining all our efforts to the tunnel.

"The Cornforth property, adjoining us on one side, has been shut down for some time, and there are now some people examining it with a view of buying it. The Lawrence, which adjoins us on the other side, has lately encountered another ledge which runs from $25 a ton in gold up into the thousands. Our properties lie a little to the north and east of Silver Bow, and although I am not familiar with Silver Bow, I understand that we have the same system of ledges.

"We are continuing at work on our property, notwithstanding that our money is tied up in the Nye and Ormsby bank, and keeps us rustling to meet our bills. The Story property has a shaft down seventy-five feet, and are getting some big assays. F. M. Wall, who is working for Goldfield people, has a good sized ledge, and the ledge on the Cavendar property is also showing up well, and they have quite a bunch of men working there. I look for a very active camp when the money situation straightens out, and you will find Bellehelen another of the districts which is going to make good."

Mr. Eakin is accompanied by J. E. Sweet, who is going to remain in Tonopah for several days, and then go back to Bellehelen.

HARRY THAW IS NOT DISTURBED

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The news from Pittsburgh that Miss Ida Vera Simonton, who went abroad to bring Mrs. J. C. Holman back to this country, would come here to testify against Harry Thaw at his second trial does not appear to perturb the defense.

Martin W. Littleton, chief counsel for Thaw, said that Miss Simonton's testimony, as reported to him, appeared to be nothing more than a collection of stories current about the doings of Thaw and Evelyn Nesbit abroad, and would not have much bearing on the case. The defense, which will probably be insanity, is now practically ready. If insanity is the defense, it is said that the woman's testimony concerning Thaw's actions and eccentricities will be of about as much value to the defense as to the prosecution. The trial is set down for the first Monday in December.

IS INFATUATED WITH BISHOP

CHARLES KEILHOFFER SAYS IT IS SIMPLY A PARADISE.

Charles Keilhofer, who went to Bishop a few days since to install a new aerie of Eagles, came back infatuated with the Owens river valley country.

"They don't know over there," said he, "that there is anything like hard times anywhere in the world. Money is plentiful, and the banks are giving the face value of all checks. They have one of the finest hotels in this part of the country, which is run by Bert Rhyne. They serve you with the finest kind of a meal, and charge you only 50 cents, and they have the finest kind of suites, including baths for the most reasonable rates.

"There are only six saloons in the town and they all close up at midnight, and all seem to be doing a good business. They have the finest kind of fruits and vegetables, and they get their electric lights for little or nothing. After the installation of the Eagles we had a spread that would have been hard to beat anywhere, with wine galore, served at Rhyne's hotel. For living, Bishop is simply a paradise."

WILL SUPPORT BARTLETT.

A petition is being circulated around the city, which will be sent to Congressman George Bartlett asking him to introduce the bill at the next regular session of congress, remitting assessment work on all mining claims for this year. The petition was prepared by Anthony Jurich and O. E. Mann, and is being largely signed by claim owners in this district.—Reno Revellie.

IN THE FOOLISH DAYS.

They had only been married two months and still loved each other devotedly. He was in his den seeking inspiration for his new novel.

"Jack," she called at the top of her voice, "Jack, come here quick!" He knew at once that she was in imminent danger. He grasped a stick and rushed up two flights of stairs to the rescue. He entered the room breathlessly and found her looking out of the window.

"Look," she said, "That's the kind of a hat I want you to get me."
